

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE A-19

WASHINGTON POST
13 February

FBI Agents' Testimony Expected in Norway

Reuter

OSLO, Feb. 12—FBI agents will be called to testify in the spy trial of Arne Treholt, which opens Feb. 25, U.S. diplomats said today. Treholt, 42, a former diplomat and government minister, is accused of spying for Moscow and Iraq from 1974 to 1983. FBI agents monitored Treholt when he represented Norway at the United Nations.

Treholt, who spent the final weeks before his arrest in January 1984 organizing a visit by Secretary of State George P. Shultz to Norway, has spent 13 months in prison, but has indicated that he will deny spying on the grounds that the information he passed to Soviet officials was publicly available.